

11TH ANNUAL FAMILY CONFERENCE

Meet our Keynote Speaker

Madison is a first-year student at Brock University studying to become a junior/intermediate teacher. Diagnosed with dyslexia at age 10, she learned early that her path to success in education would look different from others. In her keynote, Madison shares her personal journey of navigating challenges, embracing her strengths, and building confidence through perseverance and self-advocacy.

JOIN US FOR THIS FREE EVENT!

 Saturday, November 15, 2025

 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

 Bishop Macdonell Catholic High School

CONCURRENT WORKSHOP TOPICS

Navigating School Supports

Dr. Sean Cameron
Principal at John Galt Public School

Executive Functioning

Dr. Patricia Peters
Registered Psychologist

Creating Inclusive Spaces

Dr. Marsha Hinds Myrie
University of Guelph

Children's Mental Health

Dr. Michele Preyde
University of Guelph

Understanding IEPS

Cecilia Cheng
SERT at John Galt Public School

Nutrition and LDs/ADHD

Marciane Any, MSc.
Learning Disabilities Association of Wellington County